Need a break?

Seasons Short Term Care offers affordable, quality care for your loved one.

Need a break from your caring role?

Going on holiday and worried about how mum or dad will cope at home while you're not there? Or maybe you just need a break from caring duties and looking for a place where your loved one can feel at home and receive the best care.

While caring is an important role, it's also important that you look after yourself too. We understand how difficult it can be to find an environment that will put your mind at ease while you're away. That's why Seasons Short Term Care offers personalised care for those with low to high care needs in a relaxed, home-like environment.

It won't just be you enjoying a break

It's natural to worry about how your mum or dad will cope while you're away. But while they're at Seasons Short Term Care, it won't just be you who gets to have a break. Your loved one will also feel like they're on a holiday when they stay with us at Seasons.

Our modern short term care apartments are fully furnished and designed to offer a relaxing home away from home. They are fully wheelchair accessible and are equipped with 24-hour emergency call buttons. With a minimum stay of three days up to as long as you require, Seasons Short Term Care is a flexible alternative to traditional respite care.

Low Care from $299 per day.

High Care from $399 per day.

What about care?

All Seasons Short Term Care residents receive a thorough care assessment and a personalised care plan designed just for them by our care partner Envigor. This ensures we deliver the level of care that fits your needs in a way that satisfies your personal preferences.

About Seasons

At Seasons, we have designed our communities to deliver more than just aged care. We believe your care years should be spent in a welcoming environment, where independence, lifestyle and care live comfortably under the same roof. A place that feels like home.

We give you all the care you'd expect in a residential nursing home combined with the lifestyle benefits of a retirement village, while you enjoy the comfort and independence of your own private residence.
